While 2016 award-winner Arrival may have gotten more people thinking about the implications of human-extraterrestrial contact, it's probably safe to say that the topic isn't high on the list of the usual teenage concerns. So when two young people are forced to confront an alien arrival in At First Light, it's not surprising if they're ill-equipped to deal with the experience.

Today, we worked with excavators and AT&T personnel to 'pothole' AT&T's transcontinental "Lightguide" fiber-optic cable, a potential terrorist target. This telecommunication line is used by the U.S. President and the military. It contains vibration sensors that alert authorities if anyone gets too close with excavating equipment or other threat.
