At WritingFix, we believe students must practice for their state writing examinations, but we also believe that practicing too much or practicing in a less-than-authentic way might result in poorer performance by young writers. We've seen teachers inadvertently drive the love of writing out of some students by practicing for the state writing test in ways that did not feel authentic.

Writing Traits: Preparing for the State Writing Exam

To 'hook' my first grade writers, we built and raced paper airplanes together. It was the perfect time to model the how-to process. As a class we walked through every step of making a paper airplane (from this online tutorial), writing the directions (including time-order words) as we went. We included an illustration, as well, so our reader could also 'see' the steps in making an airplane.
