An appraisal is what you get when you ask an estate agent what your property is worth. It's his advice to you as to what he thinks you might be able to get on the market if you list it with him. It will be forward looking, with the thought of listing it in say, three months' time, and selling it ...

One of the more common e-mails that I get regards middle class families trying to purchase homes in California. To the point, many look at their budgets and sky high home prices and wonder what is going on. Over the last decade if we look at the data, it is clear that living what people would think is a "middle class" lifestyle in California is nearly impossible for those that are middle ...

An Adjustable Rate Mortgage (ARM) is simply a mortgage that offers a lower fixed rate for 1, 3, 5, 7, or 10 years, and then adjusts to a higher or flat rate after the initial fixed rate is over, depending on the bond market. I take out 5/1 ARMs because five years is the sweet spot for a low interest rate and duration security.
