APPA's Levels of Service Establishing Parameters

Educational facilities professionals develop and sustain the physical environment of the institutions that they serve. In support of this work, APPA provides information, training, and research based on four core areas of competency.

APPA's Four Core Areas

Determining the allocation of limited resources in favor of planned versus corrective maintenance is a primary objective of any organization. On average, corrective maintenance costs three to five times or greater (3x — 5x+), more than planned maintenance, not including associated disruptions to work or services being performed in the facilities (education, healthcare, production, etc.).
